Is there a special Medical, Dietary regimen that should be continued? Please describe

KWF Day Camp involves young people in active activities in a variety of outdoor settings in all kinds of weather conditions. Safety is our premier concern, but active young people will on occasion find ways to injure themselves. Are there activities which your child should not participate in due to health concerns or parental desires? No _____

If "Yes" please give details:

AUTHORIZATIONS: My son/daughter/dependent has permission to participate in all camp activities, except as noted by me. I recognize that my child will be participating in active, outdoor programs with other children and that accidental injuries or illness may result. I take full responsibility for any and all accidents and injuries which may be sustained by my child during this activity and understand KWF does not assume responsibility for accidents or injuries which occur. I assume the inherent risks including but not limited to, moose, bear, and inclement weather, and authorize my child's participation. Children will walk or be transported to local parks, areas in the Kenai National Wildlife Refuge, and other destinations around the Kenai Peninsula. I authorize Kenai Watershed Forum staff members to transport my child in the manner described.

2022 Camp Policies

Parents: Please read and initial at the bottom of each page.

1. Type of Service Offered: Environmental Education Ages Served: 6-12
2. Hours of Operation: 8:45 am - 3:15pm. Students may be dropped off at the Pavilion in Soldotna Creek Park between 8:45 - 9:00 am. Camp staff will NOT be available before 8:45 am.
3. Children With Special Needs: Please talk to the Director to see if our program can meet your child's needs.
4. Enrollment Requirements: The following completed forms must be submitted with payment in full to secure enrollment: Registration Form, Camp Policies, Health Form.
5. Discipline/Behavior Management: Many behavior problems common at school and home disappear when we take students into outdoor settings. When it is necessary to modify the behavior of children, positive behavioral management techniques are used. If a child is unsuccessful in meeting the behavioral expectations of our program, a parent conference is arranged, and a child may be dismissed from camp. Corporal punishment is not a component of our program. A child will be restrained only in the event of possible injury to the child or other children in the group.
6. Meals, Snacks, and Beverages: Students will be very active all day long. Families are asked to provide a nutritious snack, sack lunch, and a reusable/refillable water bottle. (Plastic water bottles are not considered "reusable/refillable"). In addition, the Kenai Watershed Forum will be providing one healthy snack per day of camp.
7. Nondiscrimination Statement: Kenai Watershed Forum programs are open to all children and there is no discrimination allowed on the grounds of race, age, parenthood, color, national origin, sex, religion, physical disability, marital status, or pregnancy.
8. Fees and Payment Arrangement: Full payment in the form of cash, check, Visa or MasterCard must be received for registration to be complete. We recognize circumstances may arise and a fully registered camper may not be able to attend camp. We will make every effort to accommodate the family by transferring the registration to another session if available.
9. Liability Insurance: The Kenai Watershed Forum carries general liability insurance as well as Camp & Conference Accident Medical Insurance.
10. Rules Concerning Personal Belongings: Every child will keep her/his belongings in a personal daypack with them at all times. We ask that all non-essential personal belongings such as, cell phones, sports equipment, electronic games, toys and cards be left at home. Cameras are encouraged!
11. Transportation: Students are required to arrive at Soldotna Creek by their own means every day. Once at camp, travel will be by foot or company vehicle to and from KWF property.
12. Parent Visits/Release /Absentees camper Parents may visit KWF Camp. Parents should consult with the Camp Director to arrange an appropriate time and place for a visit. All children must be released to authorized persons during camp or at the end of camp. Parents should make every effort to contact camp staff if their child is going to be absent. If a child is not present by 9:30 a.m. each day the director or designated may call parents to verify non-attendance.
13. Permission for Activities Outside the Center: Children in our programs will be exploring a variety of terrain such as wetlands, forests, streams, and rivers of Alaska. Risks during day programs, trips/travel may include falling, bad weather, bears, moose, insects, and other risks that are inherent while in a wilderness setting. Camp will take all precautions possible to prepare children for all inherent risks in conducting activities. By signing the required health form, parents authorize children to spend their days outdoors with our Camp staff.

2022 Camp Policies

14. KWF is Bear Aware in Soldotna Creek Park: To ensure safety while out on the trails, KWF instructors have been trained in proper bear safety by the US Fish and Wildlife Service, plus each
15. instructor carries bear spray on them at all times. Additionally, campers stay close to one another while on the trail and make plenty of noise to deter any encounters with bears while at camp.
16. Smoking, Alcohol, Drugs and Weapons are prohibited in KWF programs.
17. Policy for Outdoor Activities: Children participating in our programs should come prepared to journey into wild lands on rainy and sunny days. On very rainy days, our groups will seek shelter in local parks or at the camp yurt for brief periods during the day. However, even when it is wet outdoors, KWF programs will continue. Rain gear, additional layers, and warm clothing are very important on these days. Please, no open-toed shoes! Parents should understand clothing worn, especially footwear, may come back dirty or muddy.
18. Animals: Are prohibited unless approved by the Camp Director.
19. Substitutes: In the event an instructor is injured or becomes ill during the week your child is enrolled, a qualified substitute will lead the group. Our substitute pool includes other Kenai Watershed Forum staff.
20. Emergency Care Provisions: Parents take full responsibility for any and all accidents and injuries which may be sustained by children during this activity and understand KWF does not assume responsibility for accidents or injuries which occur. Care for Ill Children: If a child becomes ill while outdoors with KWF, attempts will be made to contact parents to arrange for the child to go home for the day. If parents are unreachable, Camp staff will attempt to contact the Emergency Contact. If it is not advisable for the child to continue with group activities and his/her condition is acute requiring medical attention, all reasonable attempts will be made to contact parents and/or the Emergency Contact while the child is being taken to a local medical facility by ambulance. Medication: Camp staff members are not authorized to administer any medications to children, including aspirin. If medicine needs to be administered while your child is at Camp, we will need the parent to fill out an authorization form. Please contact the KWF office for a copy. For campers who require carrying an epi-pen, please inform the Director prior to the start of camp.
21. Topical Products: If parents wish to have their child use insect repellents or sunscreens they should send the product with the child in a container labeled with the child's name.
22. Notification of Changes: Any changes in programs or policies will be sent to all participants.
23. Photo Release: The Kenai Watershed Forum (KWF) has permission to use KWF Camp photographs in publications, websites and other materials for promotional purposes. Identification of individuals not considered camp staff will be protected. All photos of camp activities taken by KWF will be considered property of KWF.
